SECTION B

51. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions about it in full sentences.

My family never grew large. I always asked myself a question why this was so day in, day out. I couldn't be answered because I was asking ignorant question.

We are just the two of us with my ten-year-old sibling, Bandi Leone. I am the elder and aged thirteen, with no hope of getting another sibling. My mother gave birth to the two of us from two different men. So, each of us has a step-father with the same maternal aunt and uncles, but different paternal aunts and uncles.

When I turned eighteen, I gathered the courage to ask Mummy why she had only the two of us. She stared at me for quite a while, then asked me to sit so that she could explain. "My daughter," she said, "I wanted to have more children but I messed up in my early youth age." "How was that, Mummy?" I asked. She told me that she had begun using birth control methods at an early age which later caused her hormonal imbalance in the body. So, when she reached the right age to begin having children of her own, it was hard. She had to undergo a number of medical tests and treatment to put her right and be able to have each of us. It was so costly and she couldn't bear it any longer because her financial status was shaky.

Finally, she advised me to learn to be patient and wait to do the right thing at the right time.

53. Read the poem below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Where is my ATM card?
I want to withdraw money,
To feed my children
And pay their school fees.

Where is my ATM card?
That has simplified my banking
Withdrawing money at leisure,
For the ATM machine works twenty– four – seven.

Where is my ATM card?
The secret friend that I rely on,
Whenever I need money from the bank,
That brings it for me automatically.
Where is my ATM card?
That keeps my identity secret,
From money launders and robbers,
That unlawfully acquire people's money.
